Mumbai, January 25, 2017: PXIL successfully conducted REC trading for the month of January 2017. The total cleared volume on the exchange was 2,80,378 RECs that resulted in PXIL gaining a market share of 18%. In this month clearing ratio increased to 4.69% from 2.44% in Dec-2016, due to 38.31 % increase in quantum of Buy volume and 28% reduction in quantum of Sell volume when compared to the previous month. During this trading session, the prices in the solar and non-solar categories have remained at floor level.

Prior to today's auction more than 1.92 Crore RECs were available in the market for trade, however the clearance ratio is low as large obligated entities like distribution utilities did not participate in today's monthly auction. The traded volume and clearance ratio is expected to increase further in the remaining two (2) monthly sessions of the year when large obligated entities purchase RECs to meet their RPO target for the year.
